

JOACHIM KAHR RASMUSSEN

+45 2929 2788 ◊ jkr@econ.ku.dk

EDUCATION

University of Copenhagen , PhD in Economics Supervisors: Søren Leth-Petersen and Claus Thustrup Kreiner	2019-
University of Copenhagen , MSc in Economics , GPA: 11.5/12.0 Master's Thesis: Directed Technical Change, the Environment and Intersectoral Spillovers (nominated best thesis)	2017-2019
University of Cambridge , MPhil in Economic Research , GPA: 73.1* Master's Thesis: Career Costs of Children and the Role of Grandparent-provided Childcare	2017-2018
University of Copenhagen , BSc in Economics , GPA: 11.5/12.0 Bachelor's Thesis: An Empirical Analysis of the Relation between Growth and Inequality using Data for Light Intensity	2013-2016

RESEARCH

The Optimal Age of Intervention Information follows soon	[Work in progress]
Intergenerational Mobility and the Decline of Opportunity in Scandinavia with Ulrika Ahrsjö and René Karadakic	[Work in progress]
Solving Dynamic Economic Models Using Reinforcement Learning with Kristian U. O. Larsen	[Draft coming soon]
Directed Technical Change, the Environment and Intersectoral Spillovers with Esben Bak	[Work in progress]

TEACHING

Macroeconomics III , Rating: 4.4/5.0 Mandatory course on master's program, assistant lecturer	Spring 2020
Macroeconomics III , Rating: 4.5/5.0 (2 classes) Mandatory course on master's program, assistant lecturer	Fall 2018
Macroeconomics I , Rating: 4.3/5.0 Mandatory course on bachelor's program, teaching assistant	Fall 2015

OTHER RELEVANT POSITIONS

McKinsey & Company Student position in the public sector team	2018-2019
University of Copenhagen Part time research assistant for Mette Ejrnæs, Jeppe Druedahl and Thomas Jørgensen	2017
The Danish Ministry of Finance Student position in the office for taxation and capital markets	2015-2017
The Danish Tax Authorities Student position in the office for optimization analyses	2014-2015

*The GPA-requirement for admission to the PhD at Cambridge was 70.